Natl. Forest Martyrs Day observed in city

City Police Commissioner Seema Latkar and others seen after placing the wreath at the Memorial.

Mysuru, Sept. 11 (MTY&BCT)- National Forest Martyrs Day was organised by the Forest Department at Aranya Bhavan, Ashokapuram in the city this morning.

As part of the programme, wreaths were placed at the Martyrs Memorial in Aranya Bhavan premises, that has the names of 61 Forest Department personnel who attained martyrdom from the year 1966 engraved on the pillar.

City Police Commissioner Seema Latkar, who was the chief guest, said that the Forest Department personnel play a critical role in safeguarding our natural ecosystems, green belts and Eco-Sensitive Zones (ESZs).

"Their responsibilities extend beyond mere conservation — they are frontline defenders of biodiversity, combating illegal activities such as poaching, illegal logging, encroachment and forest fires, often under challenging and dangerous conditions," she said.

Forest officers, rangers and ground staff patrol vast and sometimes remote forest areas, ensuring that laws governing wildlife protection, forest conservation and environmental protection are enforced, she noted.

"Tragically, the duty of protecting these invaluable resources comes with significant personal risk. To date, 61 Forest officers have lost their lives in the line of duty, highlighting the perils involved in forest conservation," the Police Commissioner said and added, "their sacrifices underline the importance of their work, reminding society of the crucial need to protect the natural world not only for today but for future generations."

Executive Director of Sri Chamarajendra Zoological Gardens, Mysuru D. Mahesh Kumar, an IFS officer, highlighted the impact of human greed on the environment, stating that it has led to the destruction of forests and exacerbated human-elephant conflicts.

"When I joined the service, there were 13 to 20 Forest officers who had lost their lives in the line of duty. That number has now risen to 61. These officers have faced attacks from poachers, smugglers and dangerous wildlife. Despite these challenges, Forest Department staff continue to show unwavering dedication to protecting the environment, often operating with limited resources but with a profound sense of duty," he said.

As part of the programme, floral tributes were offered to the portraits of IFS Officers, DCF Srinivas and Manikandhan, who also lost their lives in the line of duty. Earlier, Police personnel shot several rounds in the air to pray for the departed soul of martyrs, by observing a two-minute silence.

Conservator of Forest (working plan) Ravindra, DCFs Dr. K.N. Basavaraj, Shankaregowda and Dr. I.B. Prabhugowda, ACFs, RFOs, DRFOs and family members of Forest Department staff at Aranya Bhavan were present.

Mysurean on a trekking expedition to Leh dies

44-year-old Naren Kaushik, son of retired Journalism Professor R.N. Padmanabh, died of breathlessness; last rites held at Leh

Mysuru, Sept. 11 (VNS)- The trekking expedition turned tragic for Naren Kaushik (44), a city-based techie and a resident of Rajarajeshwarinagar in Bengaluru, who passed away in Leh district in Ladakh on Sept. 7.

He was presently working as Deputy Manager, General Electric Company (GE) in Bengaluru.

Naren is survived by his father Prof. R.N. Padmanabh, a retired Professor, Department of Mass Communication and Journalism, Maharaja's College, Mysuru, mother Nagarathna, wife Radhika Kaushik, daughter Varuni Kaushik and younger brother Pavan Kaushik. Last rites were held at Leh on Sept. 10, according to family sources.

Naren had left Bengaluru on Sept. 2. He, along with seven of his friends, accompanied by two doctors and sherpas, began trekking on Sept. 4.

Unfortunately, tragedy struck on Sept. 7 when Naren had reached the altitude of 18,000 ft. He suddenly suffered breathlessness and was brought down to a lower altitude. Efforts to save him did not yield any results as he breathed his last on the same day.

Naren Kaushik

The Leh authorities informed his family members about the tragedy on Sept. 8 and the mortal remains were handed over to his family on Sept. 9 evening after conducting the post-mortem.

Though arrangements were made to transport the body to Mysuru, the family decided to perform the last rites at Leh as it was more than 72 hours when the body was handed over.

Get Global Navigation Satellite System and travel for...

FREE on Highway!

But here is the catch: Only for 20 kms

New Delhi, Sept. 11 (Agencies)- Motorists using private vehicles with a functional Global Navigation Satellite System (GNSS) will be allowed to travel toll-free on Highways and Expressways up to 20 kilometres daily, according to a Government notification.

A pilot study with regard to a GNSS-based user fee collection system has been done on the Mysuru-Bengaluru National Highway (NH-275) in Karnataka and Panipat-Hisar section of NH-709 in Haryana.

The Ministry of Road Transport and Highways amended the National Highways Fee (Determination of Rates and Collection) Rules, 2008, which came into effect from Tuesday.

Under the new regulations, known as the National Highways Fee (Determination of Rates and Collection) Amendment Rules, 2024, fees will now be charged on the actual distance travelled if the distance exceeds 20 kilometres.

"A driver, owner or person in charge of a mechanical vehicle other than a National Permit vehicle who makes use of the same section of the National Highway, permanent bridge, bypass or tunnel, as the case may be, shall be levied a zero user fee up to 20 kilometres of a journey in each direction in a day under Global Navigation Satellite System based user fee collection system," the notification said.

The Highway Ministry in July had said, it decided to initially implement a GNSS-based toll collection system at select National Highways on a pilot basis as an added facility along with FASTag.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

UP WITH THE BEST: India's excellent performance at the Paris Paralympics is testament to the calibre and dedication of our para athletes. With 29 medals — 7 gold, 9 silver and 13 bronze — our contingent delivered its best ever performance. Even more heartening is the fact that as many as 10 women have done India proud. Each medal winner represents an extraordinary story of triumph in the face of adversity. Take Sumit Antil. He repeated his Tokyo performance, winning a gold in men's javelin (F64). Ditto for shooter Avani Lekhara, who became the first Indian woman to win two Paralympic gold.

Performance turnaround: Paris also reiterates how quickly a country's sporting fortunes can change. As recently as London 2012 and Rio 2016, India had bagged just one and four medals, respectively. Increased funding and provision of resources by the Centre and corporate bodies has clearly made all the difference. This must be carried further since India participated in just 12 of the 22 sporting categories at Paris.

India's unfriendly environment: Amidst this success, let us not forget what our para athletes have had to battle, besides disability, to win glory. For, India remains a disabled-unfriendly country. The Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016 sought to make all public spaces disabled-friendly in five years, but its implementation has been far from satisfactory. The Centre has even cut budgetary outlays for schemes under the Act. It is hardly a surprise then that private buildings and transport systems have failed to fall in line, even in metro cities. The success of our para athletes should serve as a reminder that changing this would not just allow persons with disabilities to give their best but it is also what the country owes them.

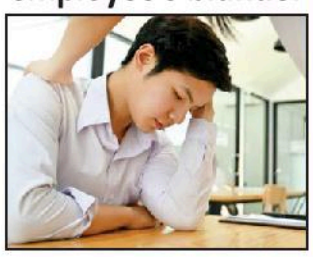
Company to lose $4.2 million due to employee's blunder



Beijing: A small company specialising in selling washing machines is facing a potential loss of 30 million yuan (4.2 million dollars) after an employee mistakenly labelled products with the wrong prices.

Little Swan Dongshan Franchise Shop, a small business based in Anhui, China, has been forced to ask customers to cancel their orders after one employee's blunder caused a 20-minute online shopping spree that could result in a net loss of 4.2 million dollars. On Aug. 28, over 40,000 orders for various washing machines were placed on the small company's Tmall online store until someone noticed the pricing errors and took the store offline. In that 20 window, Little Swan sold 70 million yuan worth of washing machines for only 40 million yuan, which means it might have to incur losses of 30 million yuan if forced to honour the orders.

This overfed cat can no longer walk

Perm: Kroshik, a 14-year-old ginger cat from the Russian city of Perm lost his ability to walk after ballooning to a whopping 17 kilograms (38 pounds) in weight due to overfeeding by his loving humans.

Photos of the obese cat went viral last week after being shared on a social media platform by volunteers at the Matroskin Animal Shelter in Perm. According to Matroskin staff, Kroshik was rescued from a local hospital after the 14-year-old feline lost his ability to walk due to his weight. Kroshik had been living in the hospital basement for years, hunting rodents. But in the last few years, he ballooned due to overfeeding. When he got so fat that he literally couldn't stand on his four legs, nurses at the hospital called the animal shelter.

- According to Ancient History Encyclopedia, Herodotus wrote in 440BC that when a pet cat died in Ancient Egyptian times the family members would shave off their eyebrows in mourning.
- Cats have a total of 32 muscles in each of their ears, alone! This allows them to swivel their ears to hone in on an exact noise. All these muscles help cats rotate their ears 180 degrees!
- You've heard of monkeys and dogs in space, but did you know that a cat braved the great unknown too? On October 18th 1963 Felicette, also known as 'Astrocat' was the first and only cat to go to space.

Pigeons continue to be fed near Mysore Palace

Sir,

Pigeons are no longer symbols of peace and love. Due to their prolific breeding, the damage they cause to monuments and statues with their droppings, their tendency to out-compete other birds and the respiratory problems their droppings can cause, many cities around the world are discouraging people from feeding them.

In Mysuru, local authorities have banned feeding pigeons near the world-famous Mysore Palace to protect the priceless monument, which attracts more visitors than even the Taj Mahal. Despite the ban, some individuals continue to spread grains for the birds in the early morning hours.

A sign displaying the order is yet to be installed at the spot. Also no personnel are stationed at the site to prevent people from feeding the pigeons. Authorities should address this issue at the earliest.

Cauvery, Kapila, Lakshmanatheertha among most polluted rivers: Panel

Expert Committee submits report to State Government; KSPCB awaits for directions to stop pollution menace

Mysuru, Sept. 11 (BLU&VNS)- The Cauvery, Kapila and Lakshmanatheertha rivers, which supply drinking water to cities like Bengaluru, Mysuru and thousands of villages, are now severely polluted.

A comprehensive report submitted to the State Government by a Technical Expert Committee, constituted by the Karnataka State Pollution Control Board (KSPCB) under directives from the Central Pollution Control Board (CPCB), highlights the alarming state of these water bodies.

The Technical Committee assessed the water quality of rivers across India, including those in Karnataka. According to a 2022 CPCB report, 311 rivers nationwide, including 17 in Karnataka, are classified as polluted.

As per pollution control guidelines, the permissible Biochemical Oxygen Demand (BOD) is 1 mg per litre of water. However, the study revealed shocking levels of BOD — 6 mg in the Cauvery, 6.6 mg in Lakshmanatheertha and 3.8 mg in Kapila.

Among the worst affected is the Pinakini River, originating from Nandi Hills near Bengaluru, where BOD levels reached a staggering 111 mg per litre.

Pictures for representation only.

Other rivers showing dangerously high BOD levels include Aghanashini (3.3 mg), Arkavathi (39 mg), Bhadra (7 mg), Bheema (4 mg), Gangavali (3.4 mg), Kagina (3.1 mg), Krishna (4.7 mg), Nethravathi (6 mg), Sharavathi (3.3 mg), Shimsha (9.5 mg) and Tunga (6.2 mg).

Following KSPCB's submission of a report to the Green Tribunal on water pollution, the CPCB directed the Board to conduct a thorough study of all 17 rivers in the State.

Following reports of polluted water being discharged into the Cauvery River, MLC Dinesh Gooligowda urged the State Government to take immediate action to prevent further contamination.

Expert Committee composition

In response, the Karnataka State Pollution Control Board (KSPCB), Mysuru Division, under directives from its Head Office, formed an Expert Committee.

The team comprises Chief Environment Officer Dr. P. Niranjan, retd. Environment Officer Dr. B.M. Prakash, an Executive Engineer from the Karnataka Water Supply and Sewerage Board (KWSSB), a Superintending Engineer from Cauvery Neeravari Nigama Limited (CNNL), along with Professors from the University of Mysore and Sri Jayachamarajendra College of Engineering (SJCE).

Reports indicate that the Cauvery River, originating in Kodagu, becomes increasingly polluted as it flows through Kushalnagar, Hunsur, Periyapatna, K.R. Nagar, Mysuru, Srirangapatna, T. Narasipur and Kollegal. Pollution is most severe in the Mysuru region, where underground drainage (UGD) water contaminates the river.

In addition, the Kapila River, flowing from the Kabini Dam, is compromised by polluted water from the Nanjangud Industrial Area and UGD water from Nanjangud town, rendering it unfit for human and animal consumption.

Exhaustive study

The Lakshmanatheertha River faces similar threats, with pollution from Hunsur, K.R. Nagar and other towns further exacerbating its condition. The Expert Committee conducted an exhaustive study over one-and-a-half months, identifying pollution hotspots, the extent of contamination and the sources responsible for polluting the three rivers.

Despite many residents unknowingly consuming polluted water daily, the State Government's inaction — even 15 days after receiving this comprehensive report — raises serious concerns. It is critical for the Government to take swift measures to halt the pollution of these vital water sources before it escalates into a major public health crisis.

Action plan needed

Speaking to Star of Mysore, KSPCB Senior Environmental Engineer Savitha emphasised the urgent need to formulate an action plan to prevent further pollution of the rivers.

"The Expert Committee has submitted its report to the State Government, detailing the alarming levels of pollution in the Cauvery, Kapila and Lakshmanatheertha rivers. The report also includes recommendations for controlling this pollution. The next step is for the State Government, in consultation with experts, to devise an action plan to address the issue," she said.

She added, "Once the plan is in place, directives will be issued to City Corporations, Local Bodies and the industries department to take immediate steps to curb water pollution. We are currently awaiting instructions from the State Government, which will be implemented once received."

2017 Hinkal site allotment scam

Lokayukta issues notices to 18 MUDA officials

Mysuru, Sept. 11 (RK&BCT)- A day after the Karnataka High Court postponed the hearing on Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's petition challenging the legality of Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot's sanction for his prosecution in the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) site scam case to Sept. 12 (Thursday), the Lokayukta has issued notices to 18 officials over allegations of improper site allocations to over 350 influential individuals by MUDA.

In its notice, the Lokayukta has summoned these officials for an inquiry before Sept. 12. This directive follows a 2017 complaint by RTI activist Gangaraju, accusing officials of illegal land transactions.

Notices for dereliction of duty have been served to the former MUDA Superintending Engineer, Secretary, Special Land Acquisition Officer, Executive Engineer, Assistant Executive Engineers and Assistant Engineer, all in power in 2017.

Gangaraju's complaint, filed on Dec. 23, 2017, alleges that land meant for public use was diverted to political figures and other powerful individuals.

The case revolves around Survey No. 89 in Hinkal, Vijayanagar 2nd Stage, Mysuru, where 7 acres and 18 guntas of land were acquired by MUDA for layout development under the Ashraya Project.

Gangaraju raised his concerns with the Superintendent of Police of Mysuru's Lokayukta Anti-Corruption Squad, urging formal action against those responsible, as his claims had been substantiated.

It is alleged that during 1996-97, then Hinkal Panchayat President Krishnamade Gowda, along with the Panchayat Secretary and members, unlawfully encroached on the land under the pretence of allocating it to the underprivileged.

Reports indicate that fraudulent documents were created without MUDA's authorisation, leading to the illegal allotment of over 350 sites, each measuring 25x25 feet.

Influential got sites: These sites were allegedly distributed to a wide range of individuals, including BEML employees, school teachers, Panchayat PDOs, post office staff, government workers, as well as Panchayat Presidents and Vice-Presidents.

Gangaraju accused Panchayat officials of being directly or indirectly involved in the decision-making process that led to these illegal allotments. Despite multiple appeals to MUDA authorities to investigate, no action was taken, prompting Gangaraju to seek intervention from higher authorities.

His 2017 complaint, filed with both MUDA and the Anti-Corruption Bureau (ACB), called for the recovery of the encroached land. An FIR was registered by the ACB on May 31, 2022, under various Sections of the Prevention of Corruption Act and the Indian Penal Code. The case was later transferred to Lokayukta in 2022, with charges against officials for failing to protect the property.

Valmiki Corporation Scam

ED charge sheet names former Minister Nagendra as prime accused

B. Nagendra

Bengaluru, Sept. 11- Enforcement Directorate (ED) that is probing into the multi-crore scam at Karnataka Maharshi Valmiki Scheduled Tribes Development Corporation Ltd., has submitted a charge sheet naming former ST Welfare Minister B. Nagendra as Accused-1, at the Special Court For People's Representatives in the city on Tuesday.

Strangely, the Special Investigation Team (SIT) constituted by the State Government to probe into the same scam, had also filed two charge sheets earlier in August this year, naming total 12 accused, but there was no mention of Nagendra. But, in the charge sheet of ED, along with Nagendra, Sathyanarayana Verma, the Chairman of First Credit Co-operative Bank, Hyderabad, has also been named as the joint Accused-1.

The charge sheet containing 5,114 pages has named 24 accused and during the interrogation of Nagendra, it has emerged that the crores of funds of ST Corporation was diverted to bear the expenditure on liquor in Telangana, during the recently held elections to Lok Sabha, as mentioned in the charge sheet.

It is also learnt that the name of Chairman of ST Corporation and Raichur Rural MLA Basanagouda Daddal, who was also interrogated in relation to the scam, has no mention in the charge sheet, owing to lack of evidence.

The SIT charge sheet that was filed a month ago had the names of 12 accused including Sathyanarayana Verma, Sathyanarayana Itakari, Managing Director of ST Development Corporation Padmanabha, Accounts Officer Parashurama, Nekkunti Nagaraj, Nageshwar, Saitej and others.

Strangely, the charge sheet filed over the suicide of Accounts Superintendent of ST Development Corporation Chandrasekharan in Shivamogga Court, by SIT, also has no mention of Nagendra.

Darshan's charge sheet: HC issues gag orders on media

Darshan

Bengaluru, Sept. 11- Karnataka High Court (HC) has on Tuesday issued a gag order restraining media houses from publishing, airing or broadcasting any details related to the 3,991-page charge sheet filed by the Police, in relation to the case of actor Darshan, arrested along with 16 others in a murder case.

The Single Judge Bench of Justice Hemanth Chandangoudar ruled that the Central Government be directed to ensure that, this order is communicated to media houses and action be taken, if any media houses violate the directive.

The order will be in place till the next date of hearing.

DSS stages demonstration, demands implementation of inner reservation

Mysuru, Sept. 11 (GA&DM)- Members of the Dalit Sangharsha Samiti (DSS) staged a demonstration in front of the new DC Office on Bannur Road here on Monday urging the State Government to implement inner reservation for SC Community.

Maintaining that reservation has not been fairly distributed among 101 Dalit communities, the DSS members said that they have been protesting seeking a fair distribution for the past 30 years.

Pointing out that the Supreme Court gave a historical verdict on Aug. 1 upholding the Constitutional validity of sub-classification of the Scheduled Castes reservations, they said that the State Government should act on the SC order, announce inner reservation and thus render justice to all SC communities.

Urging the State Government to return the money meant for the welfare of SC/ST communities which it had used for other purposes, they wanted the Government to resume 'Prabuddha' student scholarship and foreign studies financial support scheme, which it had scrapped sometime ago.

Earlier, the DSS members, who gathered at the junction of Teresian College on Bannur Road, marched in a procession to the DC Office.

DSS State President Dr. N. Murthy, District President Shankar, office-bearers Swamy, Ballaiah, Ravish, Siddappa, Girish Kumar and others were present.

Abracadabra... Abracadabra...

By K.B. Ganapathy

Ritz Ponnu remembered by

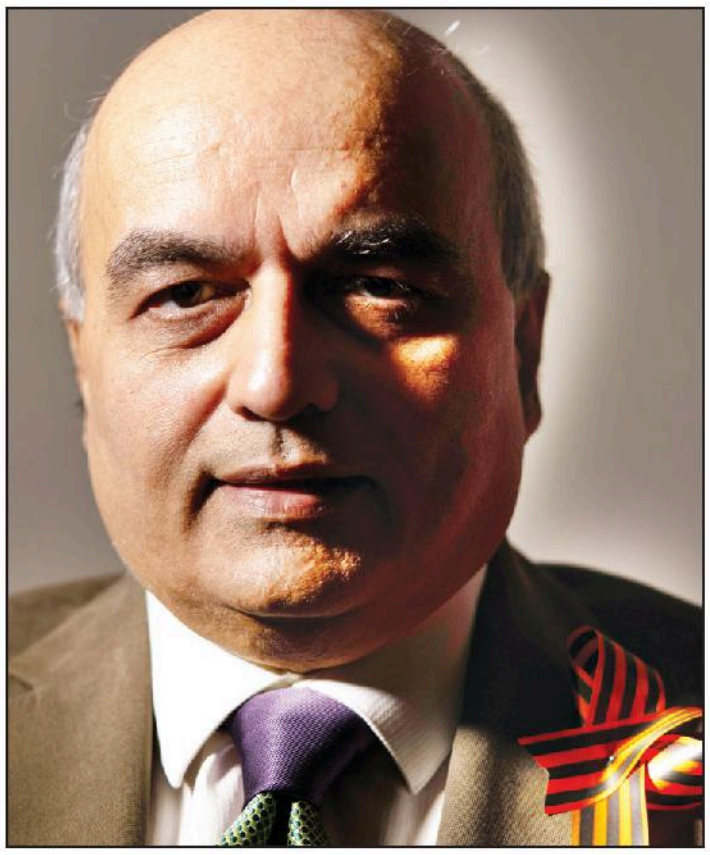
Bangalore Neela Megha Shyaman Deepak Muralidharan Iyengar, I presume !

When I wrote a tribute to Mysuru's iconic restaurateur and a socialite Chonira Ponoo Muthanna (Ponnu) when he passed away on June 21, 2024, I did not think it would ring a bell and revive old memories from his old buddies. The title of my Abracadabra column on Ponnu was "Ritz Ponnu's Last Supper" and was published on Sunday, the 23rd of June, 2024.

I was wrong. We received many letters and I received calls from Ponnu's friends and admirers. However, there was one e-mail I received, rather late by two months. It was from an unlikely person, hold your breath, Mr. Bangalore Neela Megha Shyaman Deepak Muralidharan Iyengar. No prize for those who will tell this name in full, please. For short, he signs off either as Deepak or N. Shyaman. I am afraid in case, in the frontierless future, should I meet him, I may have to exclaim in the clichéd refrain "Dr. Livingstone, I presume" because I would not be knowing which of these names would come to my lips! Let it be.

In that e-mail, Deepak vividly remembered his association with Ponnu while he was an engineering student in Mysuru after accidentally reading my Abracadabra on Ponnu. He wrote that he stumbled upon it "by chance" while looking for info on what has become of Ganesh and Gayathri Talkies. It was then he ran into the sad news about Ritz Ponnu. It was a gut-wrench feeling indeed, he wrote in his e-mail. He even thanked me for giving Ponnu "a wonderful send-off to a real nice fellow."

All this sentiment is okay for me but what made me "stick" Deepak's letter in this Abracadabra was his presumption about my connection to Kodagu and Virajpet and using it as a trigger to draw my attention to his letter. He wrote: "My wife Ranie is from Virajpet, you may have known her parents K.V. Thomas and Dr. Molly Thomas (both sadly deceased)." Certainly, I had heard of them and sent him an e-mail in response and sought his biodata to know what manner of a man he is. Now retired, he seemed to be a jolly good fellow (like me!).



Mr. Bangalore Neela Megha Shyaman Deepak Muralidharan Iyengar

His biodata left me spellbound. A man of many parts, many interests — a life's journey any man will envy. Man with brawn and brain Swami Vivekananda would have loved him as fitting his idea of man who is the architect of his own destiny. In modesty and humility Deepak asks me to "Please keep that ('thumbnail') from general publication." Sorry, let me let you down because you are an inspiration to our students in youth and to professionals in adulthood.

N. Shyaman studied engineering at Mysore University in the 1970s. After a two-year research stint at the Indian Institute of Science (IISc) in Bengaluru, he matriculated at Stanford University in California, graduating from there in the early 1980s. He worked on laser applications in aerodynamics for Boeing, NASA, US Army and on Formula 1 race car aerodynamics for Lamborghini and Ferrari, before becoming a businessman.

He had a career in international business covering continental Europe, Japan, ROK and the US. He started two trading companies in Japan with Japanese partners. He had decent exits from them and retired in the 2000s.

He split time between homes in Silicon Valley and at a ski resort in the Sierra Nevada mountains of California.

He writes occasional papers on military affairs and geopolitics of Europe and Asia and enjoys alpine ski racing, golf, target shooting, world film, opera, ballet and music.

Osho was right when he said LIFE happens only to those who dare and strive. Now about his memories of Ponnu:

Dear Sir,

My wife and I were deeply saddened — indeed, devastated — to learn from you of our beloved Ponnu's passing.

It happened just by chance, when I stumbled across your article whilst looking for any info on what has become of Ganesh and Gayathri Talkies. All steeped in nostalgia, au fond dans les couloirs du temps, as it were. To then run into that sad news about Ritz Ponnu, even as we were in such a 'way back' state of mind, was a gut-wrench indeed. Thank you for that wonderful send-off to a real nice fellow.

Before we were married, my wife and I went on literally hundreds of dates that invariably began with late lunch or early dinner at The Ritz. Ponnu would always show up for a chat, and the first thing he checked was the temperature of the plates as the staff laid our table — he insisted they be warmed exactly to his specifications.

Ponnu and we were quite close — we would all go up Chamundi to the Palace up there, which Srikant (Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar) had converted into a restaurant — with velvet walls and all sorts of exotica. And in the dark on the way back down, we would park by one of the many vista points by the road and look on at Mysore lights, while I sipped a rum double (neat, no ice back in those halcyon days of youthful alcohol assimilativeness), a gimlet for my wife and water for Ponnu, all while keeping an eye out for sundry leopards on the prowl. Needless to say, I let him drive…

We went to several weekend parties at Ponnu's before we left Mysore for faraway domains, overdoing by half a world newspaper editor Horace Greeley's 'Go west, young man', etc. Ponnu had just built his retreat over by Hinkal Road and there was always an eclectic bunch hanging around. For instance, a German professor and his wife, who tried to teach us German at Gangothri. My wife and I met during the week of the first German classes and that's all she wrote — we never learned any German because we were always hanging around together, playing hooky every chance we got.

As for those Germans at Ponnu's, the guy would be all normal and everything, till he had had a few, then he would start with a very soft 'If only WE had THE Bomb first, Germany would surely have won.' As my Russian friends say, scratch a German and you get a Nazi.

Oops. I have gone on long enough — could easily do this till the day after the day after tomorrow. In closing, we have nothing but fond memories of Ritz Ponnu. RIP, dear friend..."

I guess as we grow old and keep losing friends, we realise friends make memories, not places or wealth.

Highway

Union Minister of Road Transport and Highways Nitin Gadkari had said, a stakeholder consultation through an international workshop was organised on June 25, 2024 and global Expression of Interest (EOI) was invited for wider industrial consultation on June 7, 2024, with the last date of submission as July 22, 2024.

NHAI plans to implement the GNSS-based electronic toll collection (ETC) system within the existing FASTag ecosystem, initially using a hybrid model wherein both RFID-based ETC and GNSS-based ETC will operate simultaneously.

Implementation of GNSS-based electronic toll collection in India will facilitate smooth movement of vehicles along the National Highways and is envisaged to provide several benefits to highway users such as barrier-less free-flow tolling leading to hassle-free riding experience and distance-based tolling where users will pay only for the stretch they have travelled on a national highway, the Ministry said.

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, Prof. Padmanabh said that Naren had taken part in similar trekking expeditions before which he had completed successfully.

"It is unfortunate that my son could not survive though all seven of them suffered breathlessness when they reached an altitude of 18,000 ft. The doctors tried their best but they could not save him," he rued.

Prof. Padmanabh said that though last rites were performed in Leh, 12th and 13th day rituals would be held at Sri Vaishnava Sabha in Saraswathipuram, Mysuru on Sept. 18 and 19.

Naren, an engineering graduate from SJCE in Mysuru, had secured third rank in Polymer Science Engineering. He was a member of SJCE cricket and badminton teams. A flautist and disciple of renowned flute maestro Nithyananda Haldipur, Naren had presented several programmes at Bhopal and Bengaluru.

63rd Heritage Music Festival at 8th Cross Ganesha Pandal

A string of known compositions

Vid. Harish Sivaramakrishnan presenting a Vocal Concert at 8th Cross Ganesha Pandal, VV Mohalla, last evening as part of the 63rd Heritage Music Festival organised by Sri Prasanna Vidya Ganapathi Mandali Charitable (SPVGMC) Trust, Mysuru. He is accompanied by Vid. Karthik Nagaraj on violin, Vid. Thiruvarur Bhaktavatsalam on mridanga and Vid. Vyasa Vittala on kanjira.

On the fourth day of the music series at 8th Cross, VV Mohalla, Vid. Harish Sivaramakrishnan from Bengaluru gave a vocal concert with Vid. Karthik Nagaraj on violin, Sangeetha Kalanidhi Vid. Thiruvarur Bhaktavatsalam on mridanga and senior Kanjira artise Vid. Vyasa Vittala on kanjira.

Popularly known as Agam singer, Harish has earned a huge name in the Karnatak rock and film industry apart from his work as a Chief Design Officer at Adobe and Google first and now at CRED.

Harish had chosen popular numbers for the present concert. The vocalist opened the concert with the Adi Tala Varna in Natakuranji 'Chalamela jese' by Mulaivittu Rangasami Nattuvanar, attempting 'trishra' for the Pallavi and the Anupallavi part which did not happen. He, however, continued with the second speed changing the tala to one kalai.

While singing any varna in the second speed, the tala remains the same and the performers are not at liberty to change the tala to one kalai. The second speed has to be sung in two kalai changing only the speed and not the tala.

Harish is blessed with a very masculine and powerful voice, which reaches the top notes with no falsity. 'VAtApi GaNapatim BhajEham' by Muthuswami Dikshitar was marked for good sangatis, which vocalists normally woud'nt venture. Bindumalini raga, though short, was impressive.

Karthik's version of the raga was beautiful. The confidence with which this lad plays his violin is remarkable. His bowing constantly reminds the listener of his father Nagaraj's playing.

All the compositions chosen were enjoyable but the lower notes suffered shruti constantly, which could have been avoided, had the vocalist chosen half a shruti higher as his voice reaches the top notes easily. 'MA ramaNan UmA ramaNan' by Papanashanam Shivan' was well-rendered with a detailed alapana prefixing the composition.

Tyagaraja's 'Bantu Reeti Kolu' was lively and energetic, with also a speedy neraval and kalpana swaras at 'RAma nAmamane' keeping all the accompanists occupied, which earned good applause not only from the audience but also from the legendary mridangist.

Abheri was extensive with a number of Brigas and gamakas which were very fluent and clear, reminding one of T.N. Seshagopalan's (TNS) music frequently (Harish is a disciple of TNS) and Sri Tyagaraja's 'Nagumomu galaleni' was thankfully a welcome piece as most musicians coming to Mysuru choose to sing 'Bhajare MAnasa'. 'Jagam Ele ParamAtma' was the place chosen for neraval and swaras, which was satisfactory.

Harish has good breath control. At times it could be observed that he continued with a single breath for more than one and a half avartas, in the vilamba Adi, which is commendable.

After a half-an-hour taniyavartanam by the legendary percussionists Bhaktavatsalam and Vyasa Vittala, which drew huge applause from the audience again and again, Harish sang 'Narajanma BandAga nAlige iruvAga' by Purandara Dasaru in exactly the same manner as his Guru TNS would. Two more devaranamas by Purandara Dasaru 'RAma RAma RAma EnnirO' in Mishra Tillang and 'VenkatAchala Nilayam' in Sindhu BHairavi followed and the concert was concluded with 'Chinnam jir kiLiye kaNNamma' and A shloka on Sri RAma in Madhyamavati.

With just a little more attention to tala and shruti, Harish can be a big name in classical Karnatak music too.

WORD OF THE DAY

Ethos

Pronunciation: EE-thahss (Noun)
Meaning: Ethos refers to guiding beliefs of a person, group, or organisation.
Origin: In Greek, ēthos means "custom" or "character." As originally used by Aristotle, it referred to a person's character or personality, especially with respect to a balance between passion & caution. In English, ethos is used today to refer to the practices or values that distinguish one person, organisation, or society from others. In rhetoric, ethos is often studied alongside pathos and logos as a technique to successfully persuade an audience. Related terms in the English language include ethics ("a branch of philosophy dealing with what is morally right or wrong") and ethology ("a branch of knowledge dealing with human character and with its formation and evolution").
Example: "[Audre] Lorde's parents, Alexis De Veaux writes in Warrior Poet, her excellent 2004 biography of Lorde, operated under a familiar immigrant ethos: 'upward mobility, proper behavior, good morals, an emphasis on education, and a strong work ethic were stressed.'" — Tomi Obaro, LitHub.com, 9 Aug. 2023.

THE ODD WORD

Fika

Drinking coffee along with eating something sweet.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Let the cat out of the bag

Meaning: 'Let the cat out of the bag' means accidentally revealing information that you weren't supposed to reveal.
Origin: Most of us have let the cat out of the bag at some time. The origin of the phrase "Let the cat out of the bag" is an interesting one. In medieval times, livestock such as piglets, chickens and ducks were bagged for sale. Some dishonest livestock brokers put cats into bags rather than the actual animals advertised for sale; the cats were about the same size and weight, but were considered to be of little value. When unsuspecting customers returned home and discovered the secret, they were said to have "Let the cat out of the bag."
Example: "Tim let the cat out of the bag about my surprise birthday party."
